LAYING PLANS FOR IOWA DAY

Committee on Arrangements Organizes and Outlines Its Program.

MAYOR JENNINGS TO DECLARE A HOLIDAY

Business Houses Agree to Close During Half the Day and Everybody Will Be at the Exposition in the Afternoon.

The preliminary arrangements for Council Bluffs taking prominent part in the parade and exercises of Iowa day at the exposition are assuming more definite shape. The committee of arrangements appointed Friday evening met yesterday morning and organized by selecting Mayor Jennings, chairman, Victor E. Bender, secretary, and E. W. Hart, treasurer. A canvass of the business men of the city has developed the fact that while many of them were willing to close their places of business for part of the day but few if any will agree to make the day a whole holiday. This being the case it was decided that the mayor issue a proclamation setting aside a part of the day as a general holiday and requesting that all business houses and offices be closed during certain hours of the day so as to enable the employees to take part in the exercises at the Auditorium, if not in the parade itself.

As it will be practically impossible for the railroad offices to close before noon and as other lines of business are similarly situated, Mayor Jennings, when he issues his proclamation, will probably request that the afternoon of next Wednesday be declared a general holiday. Although this will prevent many from participating in the parade, it will afford all an opportunity to be present at the exercises at the exposition.

The committee decided to issue special invitations to all the city and county officers, library trustees, civic societies and organizations in uniform and regalia to turn out and take part in the parade, it being of course understood that all citizens of Council Bluffs and Pottawattamie county are not only invited but urged to be present.

To Mayor Jennings was left the matter of securing carriages for the members of the city council and other officials, while Colonel W. P. Baker, chairman of the Board of County Supervisors, was entrusted with looking after all arrangements for the county officials. M. F. Kohrer will make all necessary arrangements for the library trustees.

The expenditures for carriages, badges and other necessary expenses it was decided to base on the amount of the appropriation the city council will make for the purpose. The mayor will call a special meeting of the council for tomorrow evening, at which the committee will appear and urge the appropriation of not less than $200. E. W. Hart, George F. Wright and H. W. Binder were appointed a finance committee.

Mayor Jennings will be marshal of the day and was authorized to select his own aides. The committee decided to have several thousand badges printed and every person from Pottawattamie county attending the exposition on Iowa day will be presented with one. State badges will be supplied by the Iowa commission at the Iowa state building on the exposition grounds. It was also decided to engage a band of twenty-five pieces to head the legion from Council Bluffs and this county.

Lougee & Lougee have moved to No. 102 South Main street, first door south of Pierce's drug store, where they are prepared to make farm loans at lowest rates.

Part 2 of The Bee's photographs of the exposition is now ready and can be had at the Council Bluffs office.

Popocrats Call Meetings.

L. K. Ketchum, chairman of the city central committee, has issued a call for a mass convention of the people's party of Pottawattamie county to be held at the county court house in this city on Thursday, September 22, at 11 o'clock a. m., to nominate a county ticket and to transact such other business as may come before the convention.

All members of the people's party are according to the call cordially invited to attend.

The democratic county convention will be held at the same time on the same day and the indications are that the people's party convention will not put up a ticket of their own but be satisfied with endorsing the nominations of the democrats.

An Old Picture.

Yes, it may be an old picture, but who can tell how highly you value it, either as an heirloom or because it is the work of some dear friend of other days. There is nothing which so quickly brings back the memory of pleasant bygone days than the old picture that hangs on the wall. If it looks dinky you will take it down and rub and dust it until it looks bright and clean. Then you will hang it up again. How much prettier it will look in the room with a new, new frame. Bring it to our art department and let us frame it for you. It won't cost much. Then we have some very pretty pictures that you may like which we sell at a low price and that might help decorate and beautify your parlor in a tasteful manner. Come in and see us. Look over our art department whether you buy anything or not.

No. 6—Lewis—Julius Fuls, Fred Knowles, Fred Lewis, Ed Schley.

Our opening of fall millinery goods will be held Monday and Tuesday, September 19 and 20. Our line of goods consists of the most artistic designs of the season. Mrs. A. Huster, 343 Broadway.

Funeral of Mrs. Gravatte.

The funeral of the late Mrs. J. J. Gravatte will be held tomorrow afternoon at 3 o'clock from the residence, 710 First avenue. The services will be conducted by Rev. W. S. Barnes, pastor of the First Presbyterian church, of which congregation the deceased had for many years been a prominent and active member. Rev. Barnes will be assisted by Dr. Stephen Phelps of Omaha, formerly pastor of the Presbyterian church. The remains will be laid temporarily in a vault in Fairview cemetery, as they may be removed later for interment in the cemetery at her old home in the east.

The majority of the people always look forward to the opening of the oyster season with pleasure. In Council Bluffs this is particularly true. The place to buy them is at Sullivan's, the grocer, 343 Broadway.

Fresh oysters are more costly than fresh fish or oysters. Sullivan's reasonable prices will convince you of this.

Ahead of All Others.

The Misses Read & Miller, 317 Broadway, gave a millinery display yesterday in the room of Council Bluffs that fairly eclipsed anything of the kind given by them heretofore. Their store room was crowded during the day and evening by patrons and on every hand could be heard words of praise for the enterprise of the proprietors. It was an elaborate display, consisting of the finest millinery goods and latest designs and patterns ever shown in the city.
